I submit herewith for the approval of the Government, a draft of mortgage deed received from the Collector of South Kanara in respect of the building grant sanctioned in the G.O. cited above. The draft was scrutinised by the Government Pleader, Mangalore.

2. As the title deeds. etc. in respect of the site purchased by the Mission were examined once before while executing the mortgage deed for the building grant of Rs.1,369/- sanctioned in G.O.No.593, Development, dated 8-3-38 after obtaining the ~~xxxxxx~~ encumbrance certificates up to 13-4-39, the Collector states that it is not now necessary to examine the title deeds once again. As the encumbrance certificates were ined only up to 13-4-39, it is necessary to obtain encumbrance certificates up to as near a date as possible and cause them to be examined before execution of the mortgage deed. I am informing him accordingly.

3. After the Government approve of the draft, the mortgage deed will be got executed on proper stamp paper by the Depressed Classes Mission, Mangalore and and sent to the Government for execution.
